

Cost Consultancy

Cost input at an early stage will often determine the overall viability of a project and allow scheme design to progress in the knowledge that the estimated expenditure levels are acceptable.

In Building Consultancy Department we can provide:-

- Initial budget costs for either new build or refurbishment/fitting out works based on basic scheme parameters.
- Prepare detailed cost plans on an elemental basis on completion of the initial design.
- Provide continuous cost evaluation on the scheme through its progress on site.

Advice in relation to cost is an essential element to any construction work and Sanderson Weatherall can provide this by means of qualified professionals with experience in the field.

Insolvency Advice:

Sanderson Weatherall Building Consultancy have the expertise and latest cost information to enable us to provide advice in relation to contractors/developers who are in administration, receivership or liquidation

Acting on your behalf we will:-

- Assess the value of any contracts still on site and advise on the options available and the most cost effective decisions.
- Prepare budget costs in relation to completion of individual projects in order to validate costs claimed.
- Review contract details and liaise with all parties where monies are due under existing contracts to effect payments.
- Co-ordinate the implementation of any necessary works to existing properties to make safe.
- Prepare documentation, obtain necessary approvals and procure quotes for completion works to enable either sale or letting or part completed schemes.
- Co-ordinate the completion of necessary documents from the original design team to enable future lettings/sales to take place.
